PRIORITY

SENT DEPARTMENT 238, REPEATED INFORMATION TRIPOLI UNNUMBERED FROM AMBASSADOR

Re ICATO 285

Paragraph 3 TOICA 161 recommended earmarking $5 million for Libyan contingencies for FY 59 in addition to 15 million special assistance already approved, and not 15 million as stated your response under reference. Regret all 59 SA and DA funds already ear-marked for other specific programs, but continue hope 5 million for Libyan contingencies will be found should local negotiations require.

Reference to DLF consideration of agricultural bank loan not helpful until we can say it has been approved. Both Prime Minister and managing director of bank have in recent weeks expressed considerable irritation at continuing delays Washington regarding this loan application.
